DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on October 4, 2007 has been entered.

2. Claims 1-2, 4, 11-12, 14, and 21-24 have been examined.

Response to Amendments

3. Per Applicants' request, claims 1, 11, and 21 have been amended; claims 3 and 13 have been canceled; claims 5-10 and 15-20 have been withdrawn; and claims 22-24 have been added.

4. The objection to the specification is withdrawn in view of Applicants' amendments.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicants' arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-2, 4, 11-12, 14, and 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by "Mobile Information Device Profile JSR-37 – JCP Specification", published December 15, 2000 (art made of record, hereinafter "MIDP-Spec").

Claim 1:

MIDP-Spec discloses a computer program product, an apparatus, and a method for validating programs (e.g., pp. 21-23, pp. 39-40), the method comprising:

receiving a language-independent description of a computer program, the language-independent description comprising a definition module and an implementation module (e.g., pp. 40-41), the implementation module defining a first class to be implemented by the program (e.g., page 41, section 8.4 MIDlet Suite Packaging, Java classes for the MIDlet) and the definition module defining a first interface associated with the class (e.g., page 4, section 8.4; pp. 43-44, section 8.4.1 JAR manifest; pp. 44-46, section 8.5 Application Descriptors);

validating the language-independent description (e.g., page 44, verifying manifest file; verifying class files packaged in JAR file; page 46, verifying Application Descriptors);

generating a language-dependent program from the language-independent description, the language-dependent program comprising the first interface and the first class; and validating the language-dependent program (e.g., pp. 46-47, Application Lifecycle; pp. 39-40, application management software for installing, starting, stopping, and uninstalling MIDlet; page 40, section 8.3, MIDP Execution Environment);

performing usage and semantic checks by compiling the generated first interface and the generated first class (e.g., pp. 22-23, section 2.1.2 compilation using Java Virtual Machine; page 26, K-Virtual Machine).

Claim 2:

The rejection of claim 1 is incorporated. MIDP-Spec also discloses validating the language-independent description comprises validating the syntax of the definition module and the implementation module (e.g., pp. 44-46, pp. 39-40).

Art Unit: 2192

Claim 4:

The rejection of claim 1 is incorporated. MIDP-Spec also discloses the definition module and the implementation module are represented in a meta-language or using a tree structure (e.g., pages 44 and 46).

Claims 11-12 and 14:

Claims 11-12 and 14 are computer program product versions, which recite the same limitations as those of claims 1-2 and 4, wherein all claimed limitations have been addressed and/or set forth above. Therefore, as the reference teaches all of the limitations of the above claims, it also teaches all of the limitations of claims 11-12 and 14.

Claim 21:

Claim 21 is an apparatus version, which recites the same limitations as those of claim 1, wherein all claimed limitations have been addressed and/or set forth above. Therefore, as the reference teaches all of the limitations of the above claim, it also teaches all of the limitations of claim 21.

Claim 22 (new):

The rejection of claim 1 is incorporated. MIDP-Spec also discloses the language-dependent program comprises a script code section written in a scripting or interpreted language (e.g., pp. 25-26, section 3.2 Architecture, Java programming language as an interpreted language).

Claim 23 (new):

The rejection of claim 22 is incorporated. MIDP-Spec also discloses generating a language-dependent representation of the script code section, the language-dependent representation of the script code section comprising a second interface and a second class, and being written in a language other than the scripting or interpreted language

Art Unit: 2192

(e.g., pp. 26-27, generating bytecode and the execution environment within K-Virtual Machine KVM).

Claim 24 (new):

The rejection of claim 23 is incorporated. MIDP-Spec also discloses performing usage and semantic checks by compiling the generated second interface and the generated second class (e.g., pp. 22-23, page 26, page 40, compilation using KVM).
